

SACRED EARTH FUNERALS

A Home Vigil and Home Funeral experience offers families a historical alternative to modern funerals.

Our Dedication

Sacred Earth Funerals was created to facilitate the return of death awareness to its natural place amongst family and community, and recognises that physical death is an inevitable and sacred part of the Cycle of Life.

Coming to terms with our mortality is a deeply necessary prerequisite to living the most meaningful and rich lives of which we are capable.

We embrace the infinite variety of personal responses to the intimacy of loss. We facilitate steps toward the reintegration of a permanently changed world after the death of a loved person, and herald a new relationship with the deceased.

OUR PURPOSE IS TO EMPOWER PEOPLE touched by loss and grief, and to provide heartfelt and healing funerals. We believe in safeguarding the passage of time immediately following a death for family, loved ones, and the deceased themselves. By returning to traditional practices, we create healthy passages for people to begin to come to terms with a permanent loss.

"Sacred Earth Funerals helps you experience the traditional healing way of dealing with the loss of a loved one." - Aurora L.

"Death is part of life. I believe it's possible to make it as positively part of life as our birth." - Mimi

Mimi Zenzmaier, HOLISTIC FUNERAL DIRECTOR & End-of-Life CONSULTANT

Your guide and care giver through the most solemn of life experiences. Sacred Earth supports your choices and your needs whatever they may be. I welcome your phone call or email to discuss whatever end of life questions or outcomes you may be pondering. Our work purpose is to benefit our community in reclaiming good death care through awareness and healing practices.

How we Work

We provide practical, spiritual and emotional support to people around the end of life time. This includes the dying and their loved ones. As Holistic Funeral Directors, we uniquely provide continuity of care at the most difficult times of life. We work as doula to the dying, helping create lasting legacies, health care directives and heart wills. To the grieving, we provide the opportunity for an unhurried vigil of the deceased at home, with healing ritual and intimate funeral ceremony.

We help you navigate the many end of life options available. After a death, you do not need to have your loved one whisked away to a funeral parlour as this often contributes to after shock for family. We have gentle Home Vigil options using cooling bed technology which allows the passage of healing time with the deceased. Most of all, we empower you to listen to your own need around loss, death and grief, and support you to act accordingly.
